1. Pavel F. Kotik, 2nd Secretary of the Soviet Legation in Montevideo, visited the Polish ship MS WARYNSKI when it arrived in the port of Montevideo on 24 October 1950 for the alleged purpose of securing passage for Soviet personnel returning to the USSR, but with negative results.

2. [REDACTED] the MS WARYNSKI had previously been scheduled to depart from Montevideo en route to Gdynia, but after obtaining a large cargo in Buenos Aires the schedule was altered to return to that port. The cargo, which consisted of 6,000 tons of linseed oil cakes, is being shipped to France which resulted in the cancellation of all passenger reservations previously contracted for Poland.

3. Scheduled to depart for Gdynia were the following individuals attached to the Soviet Legation in Montevideo:

Mijail Petrowicz Koszkow -- Passport No. 26638, issued by the Minister of Foreign Relations in the USSR.

Maria Koszkow and 2 small children, Anatol and Wladimir -- Passport No. 26639, issued by the Minister of Foreign Relations in the USSR.
